OUR HISTORY

The Tillicum Legacy

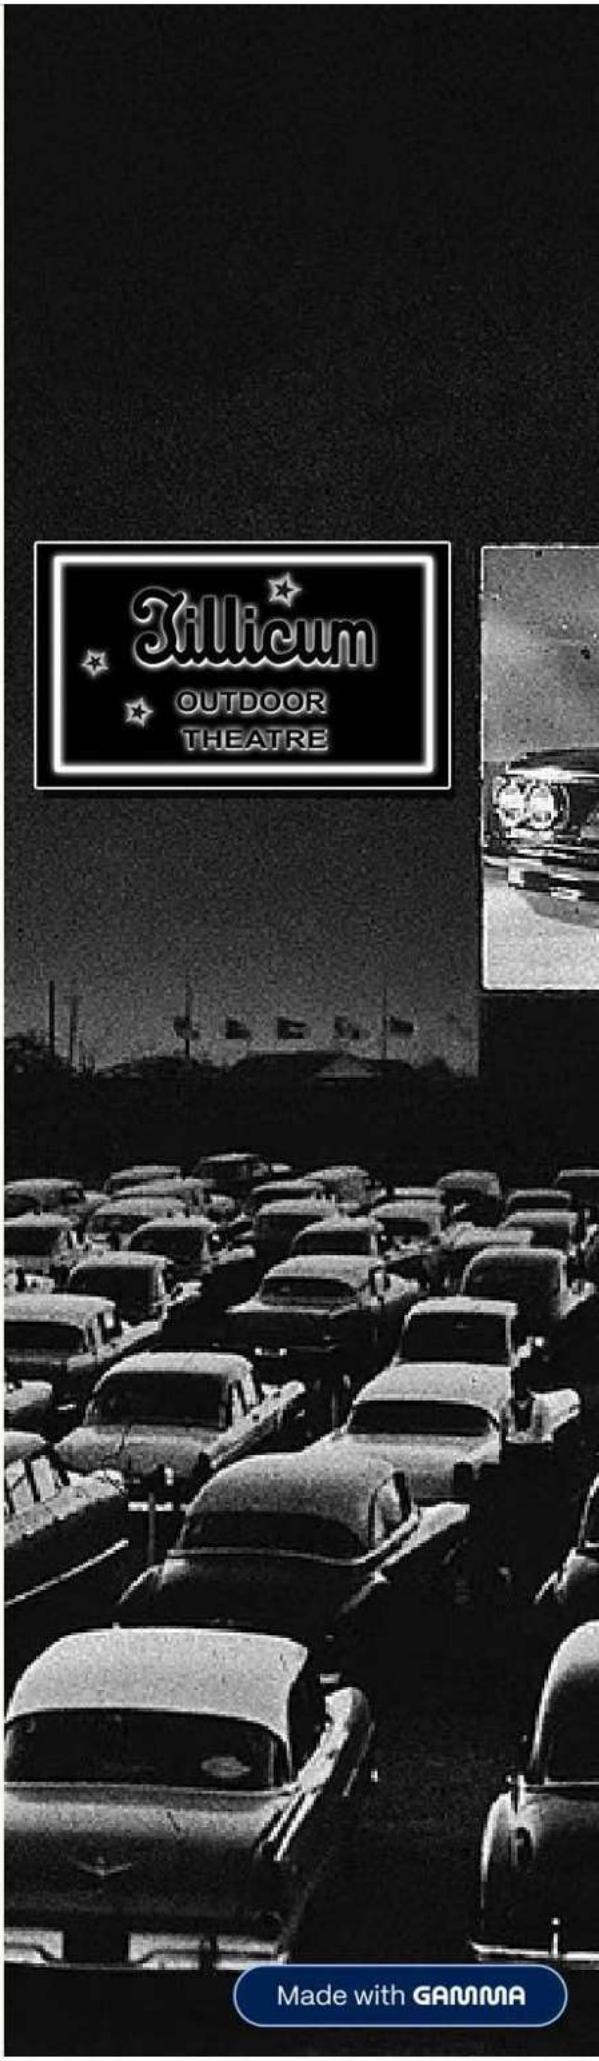

Victoria's beloved Tillicum Outdoor Theatre first opened its gates on June 1, 1951, and for decades it was the heart of summertime magic for families across Vancouver Island.

1

The Tillicum Outdoor Theatre became a treasured community institution — a place where generations of families gathered under the open sky to share laughter, wonder, and the silver screen.

2

For years, local people have called for its return. Now, fuelled by community passion and 506 families who signed the petition to bring back the Tillicum drive-in over two years, the time has finally come.
